

Who is covered?

Cover is provided for:

- All National, County and Island Associations
- All venues & programmes formerly registered to the LTA as places to play through their National, County or Island Association
- Committees, members and coaches of members clubs registered to the LTA as Venue (formerly known as places to play)
- Members of LTA Coach Accreditation or Accreditation+

Back to top ^

---

What is covered?

The Liability insurance includes cover for:

- Public liability - bodily injury to third parties
- Professional indemnity - losses out of errors and omissions
- Libel & Slander - including defamation
- Abuse - protection for damages awarded against the organisation
- Legal defence costs
- Employers' liability - for damages and legal costs arising from death or injury caused to employees
- Directors and officers liability - personal protection for committee members in respect of claims made against them relating to the management of the organisation.

In addition National, County and Island Associations and certain other representative bodies may be covered for damage to or loss of Property, including business interruption cover.

There are exclusions and limits against these policies as set out in the policy document.

Please click here (PDF) for guidance if you are planning or hosting a bonfire and/or firework display.

Back to top ^

What activities are covered?

Protection is provided for a wide range of activities related to the place to play, including:

- Organised tennis activities including training, tournaments and competitions
- Social, fundraising and administrative duties
- A place to play which borrows, rents or leases premises for sporting or social purposes and is held liable for any damage to the facilities
- Courses, whether the course is taking place at the place to play or an alternative venue (e.g. school) and whether or not the participants are members of the place to play, if the course is delivered by the club's employed coach

Any self employed coach will not be covered by the Place to Play insurances but if LTA Accredited+ they will be covered for tennis activity by the LTA Accredited+ coaches cover.